SOUTHERN PROTECTION INSURANCE COMPANY, ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA. CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING.

The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in eash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the insured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to combination of the

CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospeets of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. MISCELLANEOUS READING. TO MARY E. A****. IN HEAVEN. O Mary, if to spirits blest, the mystic power be given, To leave their home of hallowed rest, in the fair courts of Heaven: Methinks thy bright unfettered soul, on pinions light would rove, And hover o'er the stricken ones, who miss thy tender love.

Fair sister of my soul, I mourn that earth has lost Altho' its brilliance went to deck, a Heavenly dia

'Tis always thus, the choicest ones, are soonest called away, Because their lustre is too bright, in this dull world to stay. But far beyond the bounds of space, the light of

Moon and Star, They find their own appointed place, in the bright realms afar; And thus it was with thee my love, that from the cumbering clay, Thy spirit stepped, and free'd, it took its shining way.

And though thy loving glance again, we never on earth shall meet, Or hear thy gentle tones with wit, or sympathy re-

Yet be it ours to hope, that when the last sad hour shall come, That we may meet in that bright land, our own appointed home. Alexandria, Va.

THE KETTLE Case.—The kettle case which has occupied so much of the time of our Circuit Court in former sessions, was up before Judge Finch again on yesterday on a motion for a new trial. Our readers will remember that it was a suit brought by one Grandstaff against one Mever for the value of a kettle, and we never could find out whether it was brass, copper, or pot metal .-The most distinguished talent at the bar is engaged in it, on one side or the other, and the pleading has covered many quires of paper, and the points of law argued and the authorities quoted, would make a book equal to any ene volume of the Indiana reports .-The amount originally in controversy was not over five dollars, but the bill of costs swelled to an amount worth fighting for, and the contestants ,liking the fun, are determined to spend money freely, and carry it to the higher courts, let it go as it will here. The fight vesterday was over the plaintiff's original title to the kettle, the testimony on that point rather favoring the idea that the plaintiff only had an interest of one-sixth in it. It was shown to have been the property of his mother or grandmother, that it had been looked upon as a sort of family heir-loom; that the old lady left six heirs, and that the property had never been divided. This is the Court of Saul and David to his Lord and King on the Throne of Ninevah, by the Rev. J. H. Ingraham, L. L. D., rector of Christ Church, Holly es are made upon it, it will be so belogged Spring, Mississippi, 1 vol. 12 mo., beautifully that we do not know that we will ever be able again to get its latitude or longitude.

In all the common compounds for Cough and Lung Complaints, that most fatal of all to good results, is the introduction of three perfect opposites, such as Opium, Ipecae or Antimony, and a stimulant as basis, producing one grand inert. To give to the hink Ye of Christ," by Wm. S. Kennedy, $1.

Leaders of the Reformation, the representative are of Germany, France, England, and Scotland, prostration follows, is not only unnatural as a cure, but is against all n athematical laws of medicine. If you cannot make a common enemy of your complaint, and use a constant weapon to drive it out by a constant application, without fear of nausea or prostration, then your complaint will hold its position, and your system is being debilitated, 20c.; Bound Out, 25c.; Gentle Grace, 25c; Grafted | and the complaint becomes chronic.
